Eternal Progress Open to Every Soul

Spring 2020

President's Note

Happy Spring Friends!

Another season is upon us and your SCC Board has been creating space for our Ministers and Students to grow within our organization.

Save the date Ontario Ministers!

On Saturday May 23, 2020 the SCC board will be hosting the first Professional Ministers Day at Church of Universal Love. More information to follow.

In an ongoing effort to fully serve our ever-growing membership and students, we are excited to share with you that we now have two (2) Education Chairs: Reverend Brenda Philip and, soon to be ordained, Bobbi Pineau. Both Governors are working diligently in preparing our curriculum for this year in Ontario and in the West so pay a visit to our website for more information.

With new growth, new ways of managing our membership is needed. The SCC will be purchasing a new software program called "Church Management" to move us forward in this area and provide us with great managing tools.

Finally, a gentle reminder that as part of our Fundraising Events, we have established new one-day workshops. For further information please visit our website under the "Welcome Tab".

Blessings

Reverend Angie Morra

Editor's Note

It's today, the day we (at the very least I) wait for with bated breath, each winter! The first day of Spring.

Fresher air, brighter days (even when its raining it still seems brighter). You can almost scent the grass waiting to, well, spring up. There is healing energy being shared day after day through the new growth surrounding us, take the time to heal you and then pass it on. Continue to look forward to this new year we are in, viruses aside; stay safe, healthy and share your love.

Much Peace, peachiness and Love,
Stevie

This edition:

We introduce a new column: Spotlight on... which will focus on the Spiritualist History of Canada through the SCC and Churches past and present.

We are introducing you to your 2020 Board over a couple of editions, sharing our thoughts on Spiritualism to celebrate 31st March -National Spiritualism Day.

There are workshops and events at member churches in Ontario. Contact the venue directly to confirm scheduling.

The Secret Life of Mackenzie King, Spiritualist
Mclean's article dated 15th December 1951
Blair Fraser, Ottawa Correspondent

I know, I know, it's not a book but what an interesting read written by a non-believer this is. It made me want to look for more writings about our former Prime Minister and his Spiritualist belief.

n.b. a couple of books by Geraldine Cummins are mentioned

Spring 2020

Reading this made me a little sad that we must hide so much of ourselves away as Spiritualists; that we feel we cannot share until we are old enough not to care what others think or worse, we have passed on. No discussions, or sharing (although in Mr. King's case, he seemed to have no issues with sharing and discussing with trusted people around him).

But our stories go on by sharing well into the future with openness, sincerity and all our guides.

Although edited for a clean read and attached as pdf, the article can be found online here:

The Dominance Theory: A Guide to Elevating Your 5 Dimensions of Self

by Dr. Margot McKinnon

Book review submitted by Rev. Jane Fleming

Dr. Margot McKinnon has been seeing Spirit since early childhood. At age 3 (or 4) a Spirit voice said, "You will be a teacher," to which she replied, "Okay," and went back to playing with her dolls. Her parents wisely set up a little school room with a chalk board for her to play teacher.

As a seasoned high school English teacher, Margot noticed the very quiet (at-risk-of-dropping-out) kind of students. She ignored School Board protocol and counselled them, helping to rid them of dark spirits who can plague sensitive adolescents.

Spiritualist Church of Canada

Eternal Progress Open to Every Soul

While at the University of Calgary, the professor asked, 'what is the difference between Body, Mind and Spirit?' While other students went to the library to research the topic, Margot took a nap and downloaded the Dominance Theory from Spirit. The professor thought it was the most refreshing theory and Margot went on to achieve her Ph. D. from Oxford University, citing the dominance theory as a useful guide for Canadian educators with diverse types of students.

The Dominance Theory proposes that there are 5 types of dominance among people: Body, Mind, Spirit, Soul or Oneness. The Body and Mind Dominants are the athletes, models, academics, engineers, etc. They dominate our culture and despite wonderful characteristics they are responsible for much of the destruction of Mother Earth. The Soul dominants, like Margot, know their life's purpose from an early age, while the Oneness dominants become the great avatars and spiritual leaders. The Spirit Dominants are the mediumistic people who connect with the other side where life is filled with Love and Harmony. They don't fit well in a world like ours full of aggression, competition and materialism. But these are the very people who must step forward into leadership roles to ensure a better future for our planet.

Margot teaches those of us who are Spirit Dominant to stand up to the bullies and naysayers; she teaches us how to deal with Stressed Body or Stressed Mind Dominants. Many of the Spiritualist Church leaders have had to put up with people who can disrupt the healing energy of our precious churches.

I highly recommend that SCC members take the opportunity to read this invaluable book (or invite a talk from Margot at their church) to better acquaint ourselves with our own sensitivities and learn the techniques to challenge the Stressed Body/Mind Dominants of our culture who can mislead the world.

Meet your 2020 SCC Board members

What does Spiritualism Day mean to you?

Reverend Angie Morra, President

Happy Anniversary fellow Spiritualists!

As a modern-day Spiritualist, I am thankful to our pioneers for allowing Spirit the space to demonstrate their intelligence and provide mediums a way to express the continuity of life after the physical death.

March 31, 1848 is the day that we acknowledge and celebrate the start of the era of Modern Spiritualism. May we continue to remember our past, be true to our present and aspire for the future so that our Religion of Spiritualism will continue to flourish in the world.

Blessings, Angie

Reverend Gillian Edwards

When I was asked the above question, I took time to reflect. For me World Spiritualism Day means an opportunity to celebrate Spirit, Natural Law and the gifts that Spiritualism has brought in to my life and enriched it: deep friendships, awesome community, personal growth, opportunity to serve and learn/grow, wonderful and profound healing. It also reminded me of the writings of a Canadian Spiritualist Benjamin Fish Austin, who was originally a Methodist minister who became a Spiritualist in the late 1880's after his daughter died.

Spring 2020

"Spiritualism comes into the world unfettered by any alliance with creeds or dogmas. It was born of the love and wisdom of the Spirit Spheres. Its foundations are the facts and principles of Nature and the teachings of human experience. It is absolutely free to accept all demonstrated and demonstrable truth in religions of the past or the new religions of today." B.F. Austin

Happy World Spiritualism Day Friends!!

Stevie Martin, Vice President

What would any of us be if we didn't have predecessors? We endeavour to live in and enjoy the present, but we must acknowledge the past to keep us moving forward. It can seem daunting in today's world to be committed to this life we have chosen as modern-day Spiritualists but connecting with those who came before us with the level of commitment to their spiritual unfoldment and mediumship is both humbling and encouraging. Enjoy this life and enjoy Spiritualism Day!

"About daylight this morning, a warm breathing passed over my face, suddenly awakening me from a profound slumber, and I heard a voice, tender and yet particularly strong, saying, 'Brother, the good work has begun – Behold, a living demonstration is born.' The breathing and the voice eased immediately, and I was left wondering what could be meant by such a message?"

Event in the Life of a Seer

Andrew Jackson Davis – March 31, 1948

Bobbi Pineau, Director

March 31, 1848 is what Spiritualists mark as the day Modern Spiritualism was born. It was in a little cottage in Hydesville, New York that two young girls, Kate and Maggie Fox realized that discarnate spirits could communicate with them and so begun the movement that became Spiritualism.

As the news spread of the extraordinary abilities of these two girls, their lives were forever changed. Subjected to all kinds of ridicule, tests, humiliation and threats, they continued to be ambassadors for the Spirit World and time and time again proved that communication with that world was possible.

Over time more mediums came forward to share their gifts and they too were subject to much scrutiny which, at times, could be quite cruel. But through it all, they held fast to their convictions and stood up for what they believed in.

It is those who came before me that I honour on March 31. If not for them, I could not stand openly and proclaim that I am proud to be a Spiritualist. I can freely practice mediumship, healing and give lectures as part of Spiritualism. I fear neither prosecution, nor persecution because of my beliefs. I know that if not for those who stood strong and who fought for what they believed; I would not have these opportunities. Mediumship and Spiritualism would still be practiced in back rooms in secrecy.

I am proud to be a Spiritualist and I will continue to teach others about those who came before me, so their sacrifices are acknowledged, and gratitude is shown for all they had to endure.

Spring 2020

My spiritual journey began in 2005 after my mother's passing which lead me to Spiritualism. Spiritualism's philosophy fit my values and my beliefs about this life and the afterlife. Being a spiritualist minister and a SCC board member, it is my commitment to help, support and teach others about spiritualism.

SPOTLIGHT ON...

A Brief History of the Spiritualist Church of Canada

A meeting was held at Britten Memorial Church, Davenport Rd, Toronto with the view of organizing a Union of Spiritualists Churches in Canada.

As a result, The Spiritualist Church of Canada was incorporated under the name The Spiritualist National Union (SNU) on April 27th, 1929. The original SNU headquarters were at Toronto's Britten Memorial Church of Canada. On August 23, 1978, the SNU Canada, after several attempts over many years, succeeded in changing its name to the Spiritualist Church of Canada (SCC) as it is still known today.

Main points in starting this organizing of Spiritualism in Canada were:

1. Linking up of all the churches in Canada under one union
2. Aiding churches in better organization and efficiency
3. Training and certifying mediums and speakers
4. Organizing tours of prominent workers
5. To help struggling churches and start new ones where needed
6. Discouraging churches existing for private gain only
7. Starting a Spiritualist Newsletter

By the first Annual General Meeting on May 25, 1929, there were over 20 churches affiliated to the Union; - provincial councils were set up for each province with representation on the board.

On May 7, 1929, a Mediums Union was suggested and set up a few months later.

August 16, 1929, marked the beginning of Canadian Day in Lily Dale, NY by the SNU.

The Education Board was set up with four officers. Among the requisites, candidates had to be of good moral character and be able to publicly expound the philosophy of Spiritualism.

Over the years the Education program has improved with the biggest change in 2015 with in-person courses being implemented for all three levels of the curriculum.

In 2010 a modern version of the Seven Principles was approved by membership.

Overall, the Spiritualist Church of Canada still incorporates and supports most of its original goals. It continues to remain strong as it renews and adjusts with changing times, government policies and feedback from its membership.

Natural Spiritual Healing

Are you interested in learning more about natural spiritual healing?

This gift of healing can be shared during the church service and with family and friends.

Natural Spiritual Healing, a form of Energy Healing, is the Divine science and art of balance. It helps to be more balanced in body, mind and spirit. This means that while the innermost layers of a person are balanced and energized, a sense of being more at peace with oneself and the world may be achieved.

This inner balance then positively affects the outer layers of a person - the mind and emotions - effecting more mental poise, more concentration and focus of mind, and settling the emotions.

The Healing Spirit

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Come spend the day renewing your soul and expanding your awareness of the natural laws that exist in the universe and how they apply to your life!

Through various activities we will gain a deeper understanding into how we use energy to create intention, momentum and raise the vibration.

With a deeper understanding of the auric field we will expand our capacity to work with the chakras, energy and healing.

With meditation and prayer, we will develop our ability to be mindful and present and to sit in the 'seat of the power'.

Connecting with our extra-sensory perceptions, attuning and developing skill using our 'clairs', and seeing 'the magic' in the world will change our perceptions and move us forward to truly living life with Spirit!

The SCC Board

The SCC has developed a 'New Board' Training Course available to Churches that will be adapted specifically to your Church.

This training will be presented in parts, tailored to your By-Laws, letters patent, Mission Statement and the roles of Pastor and Board members. A personalized church binder will be provided for easy reference in running your Church.

"Extremely comprehensive course, the reference material and examples were very helpful. The fact that a binder full of information was prepared for each board member was a bonus! The time spent answering our questions and getting to know the SCC board was invaluable. Thank you, SCC."

Please contact the SCC for further details.

Rise Up

*Rise up from expectations that others throw your way
Rise up from hurtful things that people sometimes say
Rise up from negativity, try not to let it through
Rise up from problems that leave you not knowing what to do
Rise up from obstacles that are thrown in your path
Rise up from the world's unexpected wrath
Rise up from all these things by living in the light
Rise up from the necessity of always being right
Rise up to a level of joy, leave people feeling your love
Rise up to meet your higher self, expanding to the heavens above
Rise up to being true to yourself, connect to the energies we all share
Rise up to letting your smile be the most fashionable thing that you wear
Rise up to count all your blessings and their glory
Rise up to your full potential and write your own story
Rise up to the abundance of love, that fills this space
Rise up to making our Universe a more spiritual and peaceful place.*
