

Unity Water Ceremony

Ritual symbolizing the Union of Two Lives.

Participants: Officiant, Bride and Groom and children if they wish to include them

Supplies needed

- 2 water glasses or vessels – 1 for the groom and 1 for the bride
- 1 larger glass or vessel to pour into
- Water in the 2 smaller glasses
- Food coloring if desired

The Water Ceremony is a symbolic ritual in weddings to represent the union of 2 lives blending together as one.

- _____(Bride) and _____(Groom) have chosen to celebrate their union with a Unity Water Ceremony representing the blending of their lives by the blending of water.
- Water is the essence of life and represents purity, transformation and flow.
- Water adapts to the shape of the container as will _____(Bride) and _____(Groom) blend with each other as they adapt and grow with their love and commitment.

Will the Bride and Groom raise your glasses

- As you each hold your water glasses, you recognize that each glass of water has been on a separate journey. They are unique and beautiful on their own
- Just as these waters have flowed through their own journeys to be here today, so have each of you.
- You come here on your own journey, with your own experiences, talents and dreams.

Will the Bride and Groom now pour their water jointly into the larger container

- The pouring of the two waters into one, symbolizes the blending of their lives. The unity of their lives will be intertwined and flow together as one.
- May this water remind you of the bond you are forming today.
- May your love be fluid, adaptable and grow together as one using the strengths, love and wisdom you bring to this relationship.
- You will have highs and challenges that flow through your life, same as the rivers of the earth.
- May the blessings of this union of water always nourish, grow and support your relationship

May this unified water be a symbol of your future life and journey together

May your relationship be unified, ever adapting and flowing freely.

May your future endeavours together be enduring, fulfilling, beautiful and vital as water is to life

Congratulations and may life bestow you both with continual blessings.

- Your life together will be whatever you choose it to be. May you always choose the best and be surrounded in love.
- Let us all celebrate the joining of these two souls _____(Bride) and _____(Groom) now and forever united as we support and witness the start of their lifelong journey together.
- May their love ripple out, touching the lives of all they meet.
